Background:

(funk•sion) is the definition of concentrated energy. A four piece modern rock band out of Virginia Beach, VA, this explosive group of men will send any audience home happy. For the last three years, (funk•sion) has unmercifully set the standard for talent, playing venues from the Hampton Roads area, Richmond to North and South Carolina, Maryland and Delaware with their sites set for the rest of the country. They have quickly distinguished themselves in this competitive market with their brilliant songwriting abilities and superb musicianship.

Lyricaly, (funk•sion) stands out among the rest of the rock bands with their vocalists aggressive attack on everything that matters. Their songs capture audiences with melodic vocal hooks, aggressive guitar work and hypnotizing rhythmic harmony. It's easy to see the immense talent of each member and what they bring to the table. Among the four members, they have an incredibly diverse musical background and aren't afraid to throw something out there and see how it is received. With their creative original songs, (funk•sion) captures the audience's attention from the first line and doesn't give it back until closing time

Songs:

In Flux
